Class Prophecy

It is May 18, 1967--an anniversary. As I sit and ponder, pleasantly reminiscing, I can't repres a smile. My heart gets warm as I try to swallow the huge lump which is rising in my throat. Just ten short years ago, I stood very straight and sturdy, my eyes gleaming with self-assurance, and as I glanced through the audience, there was Mom and Dad, on the front row. Dad gleaming with pride, and Mom, though she smiled, had allowed a big tear to tremble on her lashes.

Well, I mustn't let myself think of old times. I just finished designing the last dress for our new model and was taking them into the boss. As I was getting ready to leave, who should appear but our new model and much to my surprise it was Sharon Buffo. We reminisced for awhile and she invited me to have lunch with her.

While driving down-town a sign reading "DAVE AND DELLA'S" caught my eye. We wondered if it was the same Dave and Della that we knew, so we stopped and went in; and sure enough it was. Dave ran the filling station and Della ran the restaurant. They were all one big happy family now that they had six children. They invited us to have lunch with them and we did. Bidding farewell and promising to return, we left.

Returning to my office, I stopped in to see the boss and there sat Jim Golden, a lawyer. He had always been able to talk his way out of things at school, and now he was doing it and making money. I asked him if he knew where any more of our class were, and he said he didn't. He invited me to dine with him that evening. Picking me up at eight, we went to the Stork Club, and who should greet us at the door but Harold and Gerald Smith. They told us to be sure to stay for the floor show, and we did.

After dining, we decided to take in a play when we saw the bulletin Judith Free and Otis Baker, starring in "WHO TAUGHT THE NURSE". We went back stage after the play and sure enough it was the same Judy and Otis we knew. After talking for awhile we took our leave.

Catching a taxi outside the theater, we started for home. I thought the driver looked familiar and sure enough it was Maynard Garrett. He had always liked to drive recklessly, and now he was doing it legally.

Having nothing else to do, the boss sent me over to talk to another of our executives about some new designs, and much to my surprise there sat Marilyn Greenfield. She was vice-president of the firm. Just imagine, the most mischievous, giggliest girl turned out to be the most successful of all. We sat and talked for some time and I told her about my past experience and having been able to locate all of our classmates but one, Leland Waugh. She said that after graduation she had kept in touch with him, and that he was singing in a down-town night club. We went down and sure enough Leland was a big hit with the teenagers. His latest hit was "CROONING UNDER THE MOON". We talked with Leland for awhile and then left. Returning Marilyn to her office, I gave her all my love, as I have no one else to give it to, and bade her farewell.

Class Will

We, the class of 1957 of Selma High School, of the County of Van Buren, and of the State of Iowa, being of unsound mind and battered bodies after four strenuous years, do hereby make, publish, and declare this as our last and best will and testament.

To the members of our beloved faculty, who look upon our departure with smiles of joy, we will a large amount of sympathy for their depressing attempts to pound knowledge into our craniums.

To the juniors, we will the right to prey upon the freshmen, in and out of season, without reason--to unceasingly torture them.

To the sophomores, we will the ability of the majority of us to get thrown out of typing class. (Don't work too hard at it, sophomores.)

To the freshmen, we will the strength to put up with the overbearing upper-classmen.

Bo wills his ability to grow a mustache to Dick B. (Better get busy, Dick.)

To Sonny, David wills his butch hair cut. (Elvis won't mind, Sonny.)

Sandra wills her ability to get a diamond in her senior year to Delores. (Get after Bo, Annie.)

Marilyn wills her smallness to Violet. (Better start dieting, Violet.)

Della wills her popularity to Judy Tedrow.

Jim wills his orneriness to Jim Waugh. (We know you need it, Jim.)

Herald wills his side-burns to Tommy Carlisle.

Gerald wills his neatness to Donald Dage.

Otis wills his love and devotion to any girl who wants it. (This is your chance, Judy.)

Sharon wills her dimples to Martha Gardner.

Leland wills her quietness to Gary Smith.

Judy wills her pleasing personality to Jeri Hayden.

And last but not least, to the superintendents, teachers, cooks, bus drivers, janitors, and the people of the community, who have helped us, we will our thanks and appreciation.

In witness whereof we attach the signatures of the Class of 1957:

Otis Baker
Maynard Garrett
David J. Fiedler
Leland Waugh
Judy Tree
Sharon Buffo
Della Lou Canaday
Jim W. Golden Jr.
Herald Smith
Sandra Sue Spilman
